

Some of the engines you might see at Eaton Park.

Type: Warship class.

Name: Magnificent.

Details: Battery Electric model of a full size diesel. These ran on BR from 1959 to 1971, mainly in the West Country.

Steamie

Type: Hunslet 0-4-0

Name: Elidir

Details: Scale model of a narrow gauge loco that operated in Welsh quarries

Steamie

Type: A3 Class

Name: Enterprise

Details: Scale model of LNER main line loco built in 1920s. Undergoing restoration.

Type: Sentinel diesel

Details: Two identical scale models of industrial shunters. These models are petrol-electric.

Type: General Motors diesel

Details: scale replica of CIE (Ireland) main line diesel-electric loco. Powered by batteries.

Type: Electro-diesel Class 73

Details: Modelled on full size Southern Region (BR) electro-diesel loco. This model is a petrol-hydraulic.

Type: industrial auto-truck loco

Name: Tod

Details: replica of narrow gauge quarry loco that was once common in UK. 300cc diesel engine with hydraulic transmission.